

Marriage Matters

Questions and Answers

What has impacted you most during this series?

How do you respond to the claim that Paul's words were just cultural and really have little to say about how husbands and wives interact with each other today?

Practically speaking, what does a wife submitting and a husband leading look like?

Do I always have to forgive even when my spouse abuses me or my spouse is unfaithful to me? What does it mean to do that?

How do I support friends and family members who aren't making good choices? How do I maintain my friendship when I don't agree with their choices?

What kind of practical advice can you offer to students trying to abstain from sex?