

Q & A | 03.01.09

1. What one or two ideas have impacted you the most during this Marriage Matters series? Why?
2. In what ways has your perspective on marriage changed, if at all, during the past number of weeks?
3. What questions remain unanswered in your mind? What can you do to pursue further understanding about these things?
4. What are the ongoing implications of the fact that marriage is God's idea and his design (see Genesis 2:18-24; Matthew 19:4-6)?
5. What are the practical consequences of the reality that marriage is an opportunity to put God on display, to demonstrate the relationship between Jesus and the church (see Ephesians 5:22-33)?
6. What are the one or two steps that you have begun or should begin to take in order to build into your relationship with your spouse? Is there someone who can hold you accountable and encourage you in this important process?
7. Spend some time praying for the marriages in your group. Ask God to pour out his blessing in every way into those relationships.

