

Week Three | Sunday, September 27

“Big Enough to Restore”
1 Kings 19

1. What are some of your “life dreams”? Do you have a “bucket list”?
2. Have you ever come tantalizing close to a dream being fulfilled only to see it not come happen? How did that feel?
3. Why do you think it is so devastating when I have this expectation that God is going to come through and fulfill my hope or dream and it doesn't happen?
4. Can you empathize with Elijah's disenchantment?
5. Have you ever said to God, “I'm done”? Explain.
6. Have you ever experienced God's work of restoration after you said “I'm done”? What was the experience of God restoring your soul like? Can you see how God met your basic needs? Did you experience a “holy place” or “holy moment”? Did God confront you with sin in your life?
7. Why do you think it takes time to restore a broken soul?
8. God met with Elijah in the “quiet voice” and realigned his focus away from on himself to God. How does the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross realign our focus?
