

“Mystery”
Ephesians 4:1-16

We need greater clarity about and commitment to the very unique relationship God has called us to with one another. It is absolutely important that we understand how important we are to one another.

The Mystery of Christ

The Urgency

I am and you are essential

What we become, we become together

I must be in a meaningful relationship with others

I must know the truth